Introducing iQon

Superior shower experiences are created by offering superior shower liquids. iQon provides the ultimate ability to present your liquid brand on an attractive, easy-to-read, personalized label that slides into a protected clear sleeve. We'll help you create the artwork to make your Dispensers and your presentation truly unique. Never again will hotel guests need to put on their glasses to read the tiny names on little bottles.

Never again will they have to battle slippery bottles, messy caps and liquids that won't come out. iQon provides the ultimate easy push-button convenience providing exactly the right amount every time, in a completely waste-free experience. Exquisite.

Perfectly proportioned and finely crafted, iQon will enhance the guest shower experience in fine Hotels throughout the world that care about the environment and want to reduce the waste created by small-bottle amenity programs.
